

The CSR auditor training objectives:

- Describe the fundamental purpose of a CSR audit program.
- Understanding the CSR audit approach and a audit process including strategic and systematic thinking.
- Auditor's skills, data collection and analysis, problem-solving and handling challenges during an audit, decision making, integrity and ethical behavior, investigation and observation, time management, documentation review, management system and interview skills.
- Understand and describe the range of social and ethical issues that face organisations and auditors.
- To enable auditors to be able to understand key factors in CSR audit execution.

To enable auditors to understand:

- Access denied , zero tolerance & other special cases and process.
- Forced labor, child and young labor, discrimination, standard working hours, overtime and allowances, freedom of association, harassment, bullying and disciplinary actions, whistleblower, occupational health and safety, environmental impact and analysis and business ethics.
- The local industry practice, bad examples and good examples.
- The relevant legislative framework (national and local labor law).
- Continues improvement & remediation plan.

What this workshop covers:

- How to execute a high-quality CSR audit.
- Find isolated or systematic issues.
- Understand the difference between inconsistency and finding issues.
- What is different between non-compliance and observation.
- How to manage the challenges during the audit.
- Write comprehensive and detailed CSR report.

Trainer Introduction

Arta Beikzadeh

Arta, Founder and Director, is one of Australia's most experienced best practice experts in Corporate Social Responsibility. Arta is originally an Industrial Engineer, has a global executive MBA from the University of Toronto, Rotman School of Management.

She is certified in governance, compliance and risk management and is a fellow member at Governance Institute of Australia. She has been awarded the Silicon Valley Immersion Certificate in Entrepreneurship & Innovation by the University of San Francisco, School of Management Executive Education. Additionally, she is a CSR and Licensed Sedex Trainer and CSCA (Certified Social Compliance Auditor) by APSCA (Association of Professional Social Compliance Auditors).

<https://sasglobe.com>

Workshop Registration and Schedule Details:

The fee per participant is $2,900 AUD excluding GST.

Venues and Booking:

Virtual Workshop

Registration

Contact Details:

admin@sasglobe.com

P: 02 8051 3044